School Song

St. Hugh of old was wise and bold,
A bishop of renown
For man and bird and beast we're told
Loved Hugh of Lincoln Town.
He conquered self by fast and prayer
And when the fight was won
He wrought and toiled with zealous care to lead his people on!

St. Hugh's are we who loyally,
Doth sing his worthy praise.
Who strive in all fidelity to follow in his ways.
For still the lessons he would teach
Lead upwards to our goal.
But still the highest goals we reach,
by paths of self control!

We build our name and spread our fame
And honour good St. Hugh.
Whene'er we bring to task or game,
The best that we can do.
In willing service ordered rule
And duty fairly met
We'll write a record for our school that time shall ne'er forget !

And when at last our school days past
On other roads we fare,
Our hearts shall keep the sunshine cast
On these glad days we shared
The knowledge won, the vision gained, God grant we may not lose,
but cry from noble heights attained;
"We'll still keep faith, St. Hugh!"
